Society Attends Indian Sun Dance at Palm Beach

Seminoles Begin Three Day Carnival-Baby Parace Held.

PALM BEACH, Fig., March 8 .- There was no end of diversions for the winter colony here to-day, including the tournaments for the Palm Beach golf cham-pionship on the Palm Beach course and mether tournament at the Everglades The chief attraction, however, was a sun dance of the Seminole Is dians, who began a force day carnival in West Palm Beach this morning. The band of the University of Florida, thirty-six pieces, has been engaged for the carnival, and it gave a concert in City Park this morning. Mr. William J. Conners of Buffalo, N. Y., president of the Sun Dance Association, made an diress of welcome. The big feature of the afternoon was a baby parade. Mrs. John C. King, Mrs. Pierre Lorillard Harbey, Mrs. Robert Dun Douglas, Mrs. Chomus Tipton Reese and Mrs. S.
